

5th Aug-4th Sept

The Bakery @ 1812 Theatre

presents...

Making Meaning

An exhibition of figurative, abstract and photographic works by Donna Williams and Chris Samuel

Donna Williams

One of the most well known people with autism in the world, DONNA WILLIAMS is best known as an internationally best-selling author. With 10 published books, she is also an artist, sculptor, singer-songwriter, screenwriter and public speaker. She has exhibited in New York, her work has featured in art books, magazines and newsletters around the world and sold internationally. Her website is at www.donnawilliams.net.

Chris Samuel

Donna's husband, Chris Samuel is a Systems Manager in Super Computing. A regular blogger, his site at www.csamuel.org receives thousands of visitors a month and features his writings on a range of social and environmental topics. He been doing photography since his teens and first exhibited his works in 2009. Both Donna and Chris are residents of the Dandenong Ranges.

The Bakery @ 1812 Theatre,
3 Rose St,
Upper Ferntree Gully

Wed-Sat: 8.30-11pm,
Sun: 4-6.30pm then 8.30-11pm (except 22nd Aug)

ENQUIRIES: admin@1812theatre.com or phone 97583964

WEB: www.1812theatre.com.au

COST: No cost for the exhibition.